Prince William County.

mond Times (a, 5: "Stefford, Prince Wilham and Fairfax stand n a line along the shore of the Potomac river. They were all three originally democratic, Stafford being the banner democratic county in the State, considering her population. When the Mahone party agitated the State debt question, hone party agitated the state debt question, and thereby succeeded in handing the State over to the republican party, Stafford on one side and Fairfax on the other fell into the republican trap, but Prince William did not waiver. She atood nobly to the work, and during Virginia's derkest days, when the Mahone republican party had full eway in Virginia's political affairs, she gave a democratic majority of from six to eight hundred in every election. And now the question in every election. And now the question arises: Will she waiver in the coming election? Most assuredly, No. Still, the democratic committee which met at Brentsville on Monday, the 5th inst., to prescribe a mode for choosing a candidate for the next House of Dalegates seems to have commit-ted a blunder which is causing dissatisfac-tion. A candidate is to be chosen by a con-vention which is to assemble in Brentsville on the first day of September, to be composed of men chosen from five of the dis tricts in the county, thereby leaving one district without a voice in the convention. Besides, there are other causes for com-plaint. This wound will certainly be healed, but let it be done immediate-

The old school Baptists will hold their annual association this year at Quantico

Brentsville.

Near the historic town of Manassas there stands a monument which has been recently erected and will, on the 30th inst., be dedicated to the memory of the brave men who lost their lives there in the defense of our country. The Hon. John W. Daniel and General Fitz Lee have accepted invi-tations to deliver addresses on that occasion. Mr. Baker P. Lee has been invited to deliver an address, but as yet he has not been heard from.

Siles the war who has borne the burden of a lost cause more nobly than the ladies of Manassas and vicinity? Much praise is due for their perseverance in raising funds for the erection of the above mentioned monument.

which was Company A in the Fourth Virginia Regiment. Twenty-five members named Fitz Lee Camp, and Lieutenant Rob-ert Weedon was elected commander. Captain L A. Davis, who was in command of the company at the close of the war, died here in March 1887.

How They Bathe in Japan. - The Japanese take to water as naturally as young ducks and with the same indifference touching the feelings of the spectators. The seneation which we call shame has no existence in the minds of these people. They are perfectly innocent of any impropriety of conduct upon these occasions. Every one goes to the bath houses three or four times a day to perform their ablutione. Men and women, young men and young girls—all in a state of nature—meet together in numbers of fifty or sixty to each bath house. Crouching and springing upon an inclined plane, surrounded by pyramids of little tube cov-ered with leather and filled with hot water, these human frogs sprinkle themselves from head to foot till they gradually become as red as lobsters. They rub and scrub themselves unmercifully, then walk about and gayly beg a cigarette from the foreigners looking on. The splendid tattooing of the men shines amid the soft rose color of the sprightly nymphs, who are soaped and dried by professional rubbers with utmost sang-froid, as though it was the most natural thing in the world .- Detroit Journal.

A letter from Prince William to the Rich-iy. Family quarrels are bad at best, cer-tainly this is no time for one.

At the residence of Mr. B. A Merchant, near Brentsville, on the 31 instant, there was a reunion of Prince William cavalry, were present. A camp was organized and SERVING EIGHTEEN YEARS IN PRISON FOR KILLING MAN WHO IS STILL ALIVE. -Eighteen years ago George Green and Henry Smith, farmers, living in Colbert county, Ala., bad a fight and Green shot Smith. The wound was not considered dangerous at first, but Smith recovered very slowly. Finally he moved out of the county with his family, and later his wife and son came back and reported that Smith had died from the effect of the wound. They went before the grand jury and had Green indicted for murder. He was tried, con-victed, and sentenced to life imprisonment. For several years Green has been confined at the Pratt cosl mines, near Birmingham. Some time ago his wife heard that Smith was still alive. Green succeeded in interesting a member of the State Board of Prison Inspectors in his case. The Inspectors went to work and soon found Smith at Dallas, Ga., where he had lived for several years. As soon as the legal formalities are com-
